This multimedia training will provide a dynamic look at some of the most fundamental aspects of public health from the unique points of view of members of the workforce and of community members as well. Learners will gain a grounded understanding of the Three Core Public Health Functions and the Ten Essential Public Health Services. Public Health Essentials in Action will is currently available through in-person delivery and will be adapted as an on-line course this summer. Learners create an action plan that outlines immediate, short-term, and long-term goals as they relate to interdepartmental communication within their organization.

By the end of this training learners will be able to:

- Describe and define public health.
- Identify the role your work plays in public health.
- Define three social determinants of health.
- Recognize the three Public Health Core Functions.
- Relate examples of each of the Ten Essential Public Health Services.
- Discuss the role individuals and teams in the workplace play in good health outcomes for the community.

Also coming in 2015 will be the Public Health Essentials in Action Training of Trainers. This course will prepare individuals to become instructors for the in-person delivery of Public Health Essentials in Action.
